JORDAN SPRINGVELDT

Aspiring Web Developer

Profile

a passionate Life Choices student aspiring to become a skilled Web Developer. Born and raised in Cape Town, my journey in ICT began with a fascination for the internet and Computer Applications Technology during my school years. Now, I'm dedicated to honing my skills and crafting meaningful digital experiences. I love creating user-friendly websites that combine aesthetics with functionality. When I'm not coding, you can find me exploring new technologies or enjoying outdoor activities.
